Summary

I'm a backend developer, with main knowledge in C# with .NET Core. Also familiarized with CI/CD and technologies like k8s, docker and helm. Other technologies that I work with are: LINQ, SQL, Entity Framework, GIT and messaging services like Services bus with Rebus. With good practices in SOLID and TDD. In my free time I usually spend my time improving my game and programmer skills. Something that I learned in this short time as developer is that you should "never stop learning".
